

Do It For Me Service - Home Painting Services

Too busy to paint?

If you have grand plans but are too busy to action them, ask about our Do It For Me Service. We can help you with experienced, professional advice either in store or in your home. (Our specialist staff can advise you on selecting the right colours and even work out how much paint you'll need.

Our Colour Consultant will advise you on the latest fashion colour trends and the best colours to use inside and outside your home.

We can recommend and organise approved quality painters to quote on your job.

We can also arrange the finance* to cover the cost of the paint to help you get the job done.

*Click here for terms and conditions of finance offer.